

2025 New Member Nomination Form

Biodata

- Name:
- Email Address:
- Country of Residence:
- Were you born in or do you hold citizenship in any African country?
- Country or countries of citizenship?
- Current occupation:
- Current employer:
- Role:
- Personal website (optional):
- Employer's website (optional):
- Were you invited to apply by any GAS or Atlas Network member?: (YES or NO)
If yes, list name(s):
- Explain your interest and purpose for joining GAS (300 words max):
- List individuals or groups that have most significantly influenced your scholarship:
- Indicate your research focus areas or areas of interest (3 maximum):
- How have you advanced freedom and prosperity in the past? (300 words max)
- What project(s) are you currently working on (100 words maximum)?
- Attach a CV:
- List up to three of your most recently published works:
- Are you able to attend the annual in-person (fully funded) GAS meeting (meetings are always held in Africa)? (YES or NO)
- Are you able to attend the biannual virtual GAS meetings (YES or NO)

New Member Requirement Checklist

- Either be a citizen of an African country or a resident of any African country, with a minimum of two years of continued residence, or in a university program or department specializing in African studies;
- Have 5+ years of experience working on Africa-related issues, for example, in the academic, media, public advocacy, legal, finance, or diplomatic spaces.
- Have at least one published opinion article, report, research paper, or book.
- Demonstrate a record of promoting policies and ideas that advance freedoms, open society, and government accountability.

Membership Expectations

- We encourage members to attend the annual (fully-funded) in-person GAS meeting and other virtual GAS meetings.
- We encourage members to contribute to the GAS journal Review of African Economic and Social Development.
- We encourage members to contribute to GAS conversations and debates on peace, freedom, and prosperity in Africa.